May 2022

Summer is just around the corner and we know many of our charter schools are already preparing for next year. HUB Charter believes in advocating for educators who fight year-round for our students. The national charter conference is your chance to meet the HUB Charter team and the rest of the country's finest educators, leaders and advocates who are standing up for students with you every day. Your work has a tremendous impact inside and outside the classroom. That's why we hope you join HUB and The National Alliance for Public Charter Schools at this year's national conference.

Content will center around three content focus areas:

- The future of teachers, education and charter schools
- Impact of the pandemic on learning outcomes and mental health
- Engaged and diverse advocacy

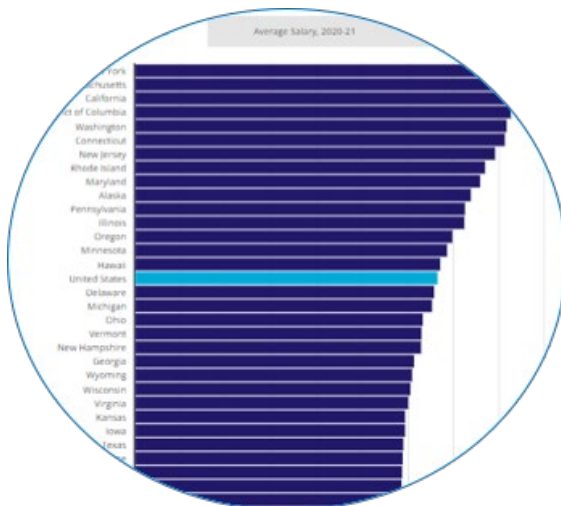

Join us in DC!

Join HUB Charter at the NCSC! This is the largest gathering of educators, advocates and leaders in the charter school community. Come to connect with people and resources to inspire and empower. The top educators and leaders from around the country want to share their best practices and lead conversations that will challenge our thinking.

Teacher Salaries Aren't Keeping up with Inflation. See How Your State Compares.

"Soaring inflation is chipping away at any progress made to teacher salaries in recent years, according to a new report by the nation's largest teachers' union. In its annual report that ranks and analyzes teacher salaries and education spending by state, released Tuesday, the National Education Association estimates that the national average teacher salary for the 2021-22 school year is $66,397—a 1.7 percent increase from the previous year. But when adjusted for inflation, the average teacher salary actually decreased by an estimated 3.9 percent over the last decade." Click here to continue reading to see a list of all states.

PCORI Fees Due July 31st

This is a reminder that if your school has a self-funded medical plan, that the annual PCORI fees are due by July 31st, 2022. Below are two helpful articles regarding the annual PCORI fees. Please contact your HUB representative if you have any questions.
