Study Hall: September 2022

“Back to normal” doesn’t mean that operations are smooth and free of pain. We continue to hear of the need for support or guidance on several non-academic issues. Hopefully these insights help keep you and your staff safe!

On Demand Webinar: Fostering a Psychologically Healthy Workforce for School Leaders

In partnership with Kaiser Permanente, HUB offered a free training opportunity for all school leaders which:

- Examine the impact of the pandemic on your staff as well as burnout syndrome and the toll of new stressors
- Review the definition and framework of a psychologically healthy workforce
- Demonstrate ways to strengthen the psychological health of your existing infrastructure and culture
- Provide an opportunity to collaborate with other school leaders to leverage best practices for supporting psychological health in your school or district

Audience: School and district leaders who are engaged in supporting the mental health and wellbeing of staff.

Ransomware Targets Schools

There is a ransomware group specifically targeting schools and school districts. Click here to read more.

Are your School's Property Valuations Updated on your Insurance Policy?

With rising inflation, supply chain issues and the cost of building materials on the rise, many schools do not have the correct valuation on the property they own. Without a proper valuation, claims could be delayed or not paid at the appropriate level. Click here to read more on this topic. Or, reach out to a HUB specialist if you'd like to discuss your school's property valuations.
